YORK April 8.—The railroads in the so-called Nickel Plate swerved from the new week about three per cent to the right, as a commerce market, as far as the Chicago market is concerned, to the Cuyahoga, which is to acquire the Pere Marquette because the latter's offering stock at $100 is an important step in the creation of the Nickel Plate market under the control of the Cuyahoga brothers of Chicago.

During the last week, the market advanced to 166 cents a bushel, up 10 cents from the previous week.

When the market closed at 166 cents, the Cuyahoga had the higher opening price.

PEN FUGITIVE TAKEN AFTER GUN BATTLE

Walton Suffers Bullet Wound
in Leg, Held in Philadelphia Hospital

COLUMBUS April 8—Sent down in a gun battle with police, a fugitive from W. Va. S. Deiter, 20, in an Ohio James A. Walton, Cleveland, has fled Philadelphia and is at large. He is the second fugitive to escape from the state this year. The first, 19, is in a police van in Cleveland, capital to-day, awaiting trial. He is the state's fugitive.

Walton suffered a bullet wound in the leg in the gun battle which started in a small Philadelphia restaurant and ended a few squares away.

Found in Park

According to the advice of leading attorneys, W. H. Williams, in whose office Deiter is working, he is to be held to his companion and started to flee. The detectives pursued. When the officers fired the gun in the air and called their commands to hold, Walton turned down his revolver and started firing. He then ducked behind a can篠et hedge and returned the fire. Walton turned and ran.

After a chase of several squares in which more than 50 shots were fired, the plain clothedman cornered him like a wolf at bay. Walton turned and again sent a fusillade of bullets at the officers. They ducked behind a building and with aimed shots felled Walton.

Ends Wide Hunt

The frantic capture ended a nationwide police hunt to find all of the men who escaped to the mountains in the course of the capture.

Pat McDevitt, kidnapper and transformer in the Don McMillen assassination at Canton, William H. Young, Marlboro murderer, Michael Jacko, Cleveland slayer, Joe Russo, Cleveland robber, and Walton effected their liberty Feb. 10 when they turned their way from their cells in the penitentiary and made their way through a ventilating shaft across the roof of the warden's home and down a rope ladder to the outside of the walls.

MANIAC SOUGHT

Body of Woman Strangled to Death
Found in Car

NEW YORK April 8—Search for a maniac who is in progress today after the body of a young woman identified as Mrs. Linda Higgins, a former dancer, was found in the Park Central hotel in West 44th street. She had been strangled to death.

The woman was the mother of two children who are in St. Michael's home. Her husband, James Higgins, an automobile washer, had left her several months ago.

The police were not overjoyed, the theory that she may have been taken in a ride, because she knew something about the slaying of Arnold Rothstein, Broadway gambler who was shot and killed under mysterious circumstances in room 48 of the Park Central.

Committees Decide To Write Own Farm Bills, Then Submit Them

and Senator Copper, Republicans of Kansas. "The board should not be hampered in any way. I prefer to have it independent and outside the agriculture department."

It ought to be absolutely independent," added Senator Caraway, Democrat of Arkansas. "We shouldn't turn it over to Hyde. It's a big enough proposition to stand alone."

Farmers Better Pleased

"I prefer the provision in my new bill," Senator McNary, Republicans of Oregon, chairman, said, "creating an independent federal farm board, by appointment of the president. I think the farmers will be better pleased with such a board."

Pending some definite word from the president, both house and senate committees will write bills this week for the creation of a farm board, a $300,000,000 federal revolving fund, advisory councils of farmers for each crop and stabilization corporations to handle surplus crops during emergencies. Both committees likewise will provide government aid for cooperative marketing associations, including federal loans so the cooperatives can increase their membership.

They were first taken to the office of Dr. C. G. Smith, where an X-ray revealed that Durban had suffered a fractured collar bone. He also had a deep gash on his chin. Both he and Durkin had numerous minor cuts and bruises. They reported their car turned over several times after hooking the other car, and they were thrown out the top of the car. The coupe windows were rolled down, probably preventing more serious injuries.

The boys claimed there were four persons in the other car. Although one front wheel was snapped off in the collision, the Columbus car did not overturn, but went several rods on three wheels. No one in the Columbus party was injured. The local boys said the roadster appeared to strike a chuck hole and suddenly plunged into their car.

Autos Arrested

Paul Barkley, arrested Sunday morning on a charge of reckless driving, was fined $10 in probate court this morning. According to police records Barkley was arrested on North Main st., near St. Mary's Catholic church after his car skinned in a collision with another machine. He admitted in court that he was driving between 35 and 40 miles an hour.

MICHAELSON DENIES LIQUOR IN TRUNKS

inois Congressman Issues Statement of "Truth and Facts" on Case

CHICAGO, April 8—Congressman A. Michaelson of Chicago, under indictment on a charge of bringing liquor into the United States, today had "nothing to add" in a telegram to newspapers, which he set forth the "truth and facts" concerning his withdrawal from the defense.

The congressman's statement, which was a long silence, was sent out after a lengthy conference with his attorney, Bechtel Short of Chicago, who remained largely to a copy of the charges leveled against him. Obeying the stricture of his defense is now kept secret pending his trial, set for May 6 at Jacksonville, Fla.

When asked whether Congressman Michaelson would disown the leaky suitcase discovered at Key West, Fla., on Jan. 8, 1928, or attempt to prove that some one planted the liquor in his baggage, Attorney Short refused to answer.

Deems Statement a Duty.

Michaelson's "truth and facts" statement to the press read as follows:

Because of the widespread publication of an indictment charging that I violated the laws of the United States by transporting liquor in my trunk and baggage, I deem it my duty to give to the members-elect of the house of representatives of the seventy-first congress, of which I am a member-elect, my constituents of the seventh congressional district of Illinois and the people of the country at large the truth and facts regarding this matter.

First—My trunks and baggage transported to the United States from Cuba did not contain any intoxicating liquors of any sort or character.

Other Explanations.

Second—My trunks and baggage, upon arrival at the port of Key West, contained no intoxicating liquor of any kind.

Third—My trunks and baggage transported in the United States did not contain any intoxicating liquor of any kind.

Fourth—committed an offense against the laws of the United States.

Fifth—I am not guilty of any charge contained in the indictment.

Sixth—At the bar of Justice I will establish beyond the possibility of doubt the truth of this, my statement.

CHOIR IN LONDON

Hall Far From Filled, but Delight Is Demonstrated

LONDON, April 8—The Dayton (Ohio) choir now touring England gave a recital in Albert Hall yesterday afternoon with a program ranging from Paisserina and Bach to modern American composers.

The vast hall was far from filled and the audience took a little time to thaw out. Some of the solo voices, however, soon created demands for encores and at the end there was a great demonstration of delight. A floral tribute was presented to Conductor Williamson.

DE CLIFF HOSTESS ENTERTAINS CHILDREN

De CLIFF, April 8—Mrs. G. C. Chambers entertained a number of children at her home Saturday afternoon in honor of the eighth birthday anniversary of her daughter, Mary Louise. She was assisted in serving refreshments at a table centered with a lighted birthday cake, by Mrs. Fred Boyer. The children enjoyed a session of games and a program of readings and songs. The little celebrants received a number of remembrances. Those present were Kathryn Drake, Marjorie Potts, Marjorie June Free, Jerome Montgomery, Ruthella Drake, Betty Boyer, Jeanie Drake, Mary Ann Free, Anna Chapman, Martha Hudson, Sarah Tuck, Roland Drake, G.
